Also to the children of St Paul's 2nd Class who made their first Holy Communion in SsPeter & Paul's today. It is a very special milestone in their faith journey. May it be a joyful and memorable occasion for them and their families. Sincere thanks to the parents, Ms McFeeley, teachers, school staff and parish community for their guidance, support and preparation throughout the year. We keep all our children in our prayers as they receive Jesus for the first time.

Next Sunday at 10.45 Mass the children of St Paul's SEN class will receive their first Holy Communion. This also is a meaningful and joyful occasion for each child: we are especially aware of the great care, support and dedication of Ms Durnin and the SNAs and are deeply grateful to parents, teachers, class SNAs and again to the parish for their kindness, encouragement and commitment throughout the year in helping the children prepare for this Sacrament.
